This book was written in Spanish by a native speaker specifically for the Spanish-speaking world. How illuminating would that be. It's a cute romance they have going on. The results of this descriptive-analytic study show that the concept of housing in this city has been changed and the main factor of development has been derived from the inside.

g. Innovations of the project include: the successful utilisation of the RCCs, in a somewhat restricted role, in the management of microcredit; the WFP food-for-training as opposed to the well-tested food-for-work ; the successful twinning of household choice and village-level planning regarding economic trees; the creation of the project-specific VIGs, which are now regarded as permanent institutions in villages.
