The Problem of Emotions in Societies. For us, good corporate governance not only forms the basis for lasting success; it is also an important prerequisite for strengthening the trust of our stakeholders in our work. Siddiqi, Asif. The Mohist program called for a process by which self-love was replaced by, or transformed into, impartial love-the unselfish and altruistic concern for others that would, in their reckoning, lead to an improved world untroubled by wars between states, conflict in communities, and strife within families.
